

National Dislocated Worker Grant (DWG) Summary

Project Name	Silicon Valley Dislocated Worker Assistance Project
Project Type	Regular
Period of Performance	1/1/2016 – 12/31/2017
Grantee Name	NOVA Workforce Board
Grantee City and State	Sunnyvale, California
Requested Amount	Up to $3,200,000 with an initial $1,539,570
Planned Participants	920
Project Service Area	San Mateo and Santa Clara Counties
Targeted Group	Workers affected by layoffs from 70 employers in the Silicon Valley region of northern California.
Project Description	This project will provide training and employment – related services to the affected workers to enable them to become reemployed.
Training/Services	The project will offer on-the-job (OJT) and other “earn as you learn” opportunities in the fields of Bioscience; Construction; Truck Driving; and Business and Finance; as well as current technologies such as Cybersecurity and Oracle Financial. A significant share of the training to be provided consists of skill enhancements, which are required to upgrade their professional and technical skills in order to allow job seekers to remain competitive in the Silicon Valley labor market.
Congressional Interest	None of which ETA is aware.
Grantee Contact	Jeanette Langdell NOVA Workforce Board 505 West Olive Avenue, Suite 550 Sunnyvale, California 94280-0001 (408) 703-7241