This document is hereby amended as follows:

Stakeholder Call on America's Promise

On June 6, 2016, the U.S. Department of Labor (DOL), Employment and Training Administration (ETA) announced the availability of approximately $100 million in America's Promise Job Driven Grants (America's Promise) to develop new and expand existing regional workforce partnerships between workforce agencies, education and training providers, and employers in a variety of industries such as information technology, healthcare, advanced manufacturing, financial services, and educational services.

To support prospective applicants of the America's Promise grant competition, ETA will be holding a stakeholder call featuring Eric Seleznow, Deputy Assistant Secretary for U.S. DOL/ETA. Please join us for this call to hear Deputy Assistant Seleznow share the administration's goals for this competition and key features of the grants. This call is open to all interested parties. The call will be recorded and a link will be posted at https://www.doleta.gov/grants/find\_grants.cfm after the event. Please note, lines will be muted and we will not be taking questions during the call. Any specific questions about the competition should be directed to the Grants Management Specialist, Ariam Ferro at ferro.ariam@dol.gov.
